

A STABLEMAN DIES FROM GLANDERS.

THE DISEASE ATTACKS AN EMPLOYEE OF THE THIRD AVENUE RAILROAD COMPANY—TATION FROM A SICK HORSE.

The death of a stableman from glanders, a disease commonly supposed to be confined to animals, has been reported to the Board of Health by Dr. Edward Koestler, of No. 77 Lexington-ave. Morris Hertz, employed in the stables of the Third Avenue Railroad Company, at Sixty-fifth-st. and Third-ave., living at No. 401 East Seventy-second-st., died at his home Saturday from glanders.

Several weeks ago Hertz was compelled to give up work as he was suffering from what he supposed was rheumatism. Abscesses and sores gradually formed on his body, especially at the joints. Last Thursday Dr. Koestler was called in, and at first diagnosed the case as rheumatism. At his next visit, on a closer examination, he discovered the case to be one of glanders. The Board of Health was immediately informed, but before any action could be taken the man was dead. On Sunday the body was taken to the morgue and on Monday Hertz was buried at Woodhaven, L. I.

Dr. Koestler said that there was no doubt that it was a genuine case of glanders, which is a dangerous contagious disease and almost incurable. He thought that Hertz was inoculated with the disease through a cut or scratch on his hand while working among horses afflicted with glanders. The production of the disease was extremely rare among human beings, this being the third such case that has come to his notice.

At the Third-ave. railroad stables, Dr. S. K. Johnson, a veterinary surgeon for the Board of Health, had just finished examining the horses and had found four cases of glanders among them. He said that he had examined all the horses and generally found one or two cases of glanders at each visit. The diseased animals were taken to Thirtieth-st. and North River and killed. Hertz left a wife and six children, who have been in the country only a short time and can speak no English.

EDWARD W. SAPORTAS IN COURT.

Edward W. Saportas, the broker who got into a fight with Edward J. Levy in the Sturtevant House on Monday night, was arrested at his office No. 8 Broad-st., yesterday afternoon, on a warrant procured by Levy. Saportas was taken to the Jefferson Market Police Court and arraigned on a charge of assault.

GOOD ADVICE TO PROFESSIONAL WOMEN.

Mrs. Ida Jeffreys-Goodfriend told the members of the Professional Women's League yesterday why they should cultivate good taste, tact and common sense in their social and business relations. She spoke of the necessity for quietness in dress and conduct, as the women of the stage are always the top of the fashion in dress and have to be private life. She carried her audience with her when she said: "An early morning start by a circuitous route over a bad road by a slow train" gives an excellent opportunity to show tact.

She closed her remarks by advocating artistic work to keep the inefficient actors out of the profession. Mrs. M. M. Smith, Miss Anna, Miss Anna, Miss Edith Totten, Mrs. James J. Carhart, Miss Mary Pondfield, Mrs. A. J. Carhart, Miss Mrs. Rowley, Miss Wilby, Miss Rand, Miss Gilman and Miss Whitcomb were present.

THE PETROLEUM MARKET.

NEWS FROM THE FIELD AND RANGE OF PRICES.—The production of the New-York district is reported at 14,500 barrels, an increase of 50 barrels over the last preceding daily report. It is assumed, however, that this spurt is more than temporary. It had no important influence upon the crude petroleum speculation. There were no sales in New-York, but 300,000 barrels were sold at an exchange in Oil City. The market was steady at 61c per barrel, 60c in bulk and 5 1/2 cts in cases. Foreign quotations were: Antwerp, 11 1/2 francs; Bremen, 4.35 marks; London, 2 1/2 shillings.

THE TRADE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Sept. 20 (Special).—Some of the local bulls who have been long of wheat for weeks let their ears be taken by the public eye and have to be taken care of by larger Northwestern receipts. There was also an idea that Partridge, who has been a bull of late and long several million, was doing better.
